

Getting the Love You Want + Couples Equine Connection

How can a subtle internal shift
COMPLETELY change your relationship?

We all have our blindspots and often these create tension, stress and discord in relationships. Horses don't lie, hold grudges, or judge and they have an uncanny ability to sense and reflect our inner state, even when we're not aware of it.

So, when you step into an arena with one you'll understand how you contribute to the challenges in your relationship and what you have to do to heal it.

Combined with IMAGO Relationship Theory this powerful weekend creates an emotionally safe environment where we move past shame, blame, and criticism to being deeply heard and forming a stronger connection.

Schedule a  Romantic
Weekend. Stay in Ramona!
